World History and Geography 2020-21

Unit 1
Age of Revolution
1750-1850

Module 1:
Absolutism,
Divine Right of Kings, and the English Civil War

Day 4

The Magna Carta and the English Bill of Rights

Background

- Magna Carta
 - Written by nobles who wanted personal freedom
 - More of a peace treaty
- English Bill of Rights
 - Written mainly in response to James II's religious intolerance.

The total of the state of with a fine of the state of the along the work of the Whole the Whole the work of the will have been a for a contract of the later of the contract of the later of the la was hard and hard on hard flower or got and a control of the properties of the country and have been another than the country and the country on with water all a charact halos after court of got the his time to the for all halos as their first of the house the for all the house the first of the house the for a large of the house the hou hand have the Come of the Comment of the Comment of the Same of th The bord and the transfer to the there were the first the transfer of the the tran What was a few of the state of and a standard of the state of placed at a few of the land of 15 Mile 1 grand are not more than the the thing of the the trade for the the thing of the the trade of the the trade of th the tills all the first of the first of the first of the the things of the the things of the the things of the thi plat the winds the stand to the stand of the and the second of more were required and maked and a second of the secon and the same of th to Call make 188 All all a lively a water to be a first of the water of the said from and which the same of the property of the same of the was transferred to the land of a though the land of proportion has all the land of the lan in tall it they are to the form of the thing of the first the state of the s we had to the should this & De browning that the world the had been properly as the best of the world to we had to w would get to the to be t the state of the s 1. 1 1 1 1 1 - 1 . I shim do then water per so live of both his or them do both of part book of first making through the first adder do of it at he will

Magna Carta

- Written in 1215
- Nobles rebelling against monarchy
- Trial by jury, no taxes without consent, effective legal system, and property rights
- Began to limit king's power.
- Did not provide rights for all people.

white the speciment and we Comprising and Commons or embled of Morningers Confinite fully most been so interesting all fiel tyrong A the Decret . The Feature on & sepon the thicketes say of Hoomaty in The years of our word One a thousand he have not and with present sure there Majorne more railed and fueron of the w Tames and Tyle of William and Mary Strong and Surress of Count being present in billing monte pentous Ci recinin Serlatation in and Distant mate of the said don't out common in the west former our Mercan me lose king lands the Grand by the obstance of diverse out Connection Subget and Themston implored by firm did entravous to dudivert and sphispare int protestant Policion and the Javes and distance of this Kingtone 234 attaminer and forenshing a power of Dispensing with a and suppording of Mauris and fill Egernion of Laure without coment of Intiament 230 "estimation and profesions because weren's .. Extlates to timmely referenment to or openses from . contractiner to said faid assumed lower 250 issuing and continue to be befruit to a Mountifien butter . the Stear Scale for exercise a Sout ralled the .. Point of Commissioners for Enteriamenal Cours He levering money for and forthe are of the chance by pretente of Vertogrative for other from and in office mainer then the fame was erained or -Parliament for raising and ferfing a Sandian Chang within this Kourtonic in time of Court without content of Intlement and Quartering Couldisted contrary to dow By continue severall good Subjects deing Professants to or Sisamuch at the same time when playing were bethe armee and impleved multary to Law Day violating the freedome of Election of Members to sorre in . Parliament De protentioned in the court of a Kings Dieure for matters and court proprietable only in Markament and by Sietzet And arbitrary and illeral grantes Olubionities of late venit

English Bill of Rights

- Written in 1689
- Response to James II
- Freedom of religion, end of cruel and torturous punishments.
- Built upon ideas found in the Magna Carta.
- Demanded set of rights.
- Parliament always stronger than monarch.